

Do you live, work or go to college in Auburn, Federal Way or Kent?

Then you may qualify for a FREE ORCA card pre-loaded with $10 to ride the region's buses, trains and ferries.

King County Metro is offering a free ORCA card to introduce you to the great new travel information tools designed for where you spend a lot of your time.

Spot all the ways to get around by transit, sharing the ride, biking and walking in Auburn, Federal Way and Kent... and beyond.

- Sign up between now and October 31st for a FREE ORCA card pre-loaded with $10
- Check out the new travel website created just for your city
- Get a new travel map and find all the ways to reach your hot spots

It's all at kingcounty.gov/GetYouThere

We'll Get You There

Offer expires October 31, 2013. Please allow two weeks for processing. Offer available for adults who live, work or go to college in Auburn, Kent and/or Federal Way. For all areas, offer is good for one adult ORCA card. Only two ORCA cards per household. Youth and Regional Reduced Fare Permit (RRFP) ORCA cards are not available with this promotion. You must be 18 years or older. While supplies last.